Why take this course?

- Young Muslims in the UK face challenges as part of living in a multi-faith and multi-ethnic society. This course will enable them to deal with current problems and contemporary issues faced in modern Britain today.
- This course provides a deeper understanding of Islam and will enable students to broaden their knowledge, analytical skills and allow them to progress to A level and beyond.
- This is only established GCSE Religious study course in Aberdeen running since 2007 and students have been greatly successful in gaining knowledge in depth and achieved qualification with Grade A*, A's and B's.

Course details, guidelines, terms and conditions and past achievements are available online and on request.
